

CODE: 3011 – 1009 BRAND NEW APARTMENTS CHALEPA, CHANIA

On the outskirts of Chania city centre we find the attractive backwater suburb of Chalepa. It is one of the most distinctive and historical parts of the city. Once upon a time, Chalepa was considered the bourgeois neighborhood of Chania, where the noble class, diplomats and people with a certain commission or post used to live. Many famous and celebrated personalities, artists and politicians were born or lived in this district. It is also an area renowned for its seafront fish restaurants, stylish mansions and the church of Agia Magdalini (St Mary Magdalene), built in 1901 in a Russian style.

Its here in this quiet residential quarter of Chania western Crete we have for sale these superb 65 sqm apartments fitted out to an extremely high standard. The properties are suitable as either holiday homes or for permanent residence.

The homes are close to all amenities and only a short walk from the coastline where a handful of traditional fish tavernas extremely popular with both locals and tourists cook an array of freshly caught seafood.
